

ED / ING ADJECTIVES

Circle the correct adjectives in each sentence below.

- Our visit to Paris was an amazing / amazed experience.
- I get really annoying / annoyed when I have to wait in line.
- It is impossible to get boring / bored in London.
- Nightlife in Ibiza is quite exciting / excited.
- I am a little confusing / confused about this city map.

Change the words in CAPITALS so that they fit the gaps.

- Studying a foreign language might be FRUSTRATE
- I often feel in winter. DEPRESS
- This 12-hour bus journey was EXHAUST
- Tom was really when he saw the spider. FRIGHTEN
- I hate these lessons, they are always so BORE
- Jane is by the ancient Egypt. FASCINATE
- It was so to fall down on the street! EMBARRASS
- This book was rather DISAPPOINT