

Name _____

Easter True or False Questions

1. Rabbits are traditionally eaten at Easter.

.....

2. The myth of the Easter bunny comes from Russia.

.....

3. Easter is the most important Christian celebration.

.....

4. The average child in the United Kingdom eats 14 eggs at Easter.

.....

5. 80 million eggs are bought in Britain each year.

.....

6. It is a tradition to cook pancakes at Easter.

.....

7. The white lily is the traditional Easter flower.

.....

8. Buckingham Palace holds an Easter egg roll every year.

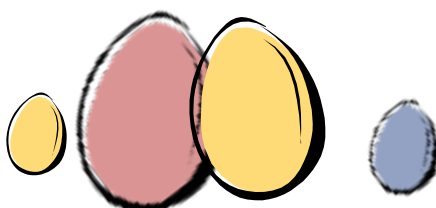

.....

9. The ancient Egyptians gave decorated eggs as gifts.

.....

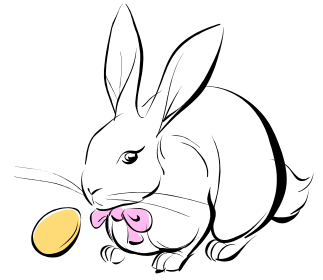

10. It is a tradition to eat hot cross buns on Easter Sunday.

.....

Name _____

Easter True or False Answers

1. Rabbits are traditionally eaten at Easter.

False. Lamb is often eaten at Easter.

2. The myth of the Easter bunny comes from Russia.

False. It comes from Germany.

3. Easter is the most important Christian celebration.

True.

4. The average child in the United Kingdom eats 14 eggs at Easter.

False. They eat an average of 8.8 eggs.

5. 80 million eggs are sold in Britain each year.

True.

6. It is traditional to cook pancakes at Easter.

False. Pancakes are cooked on Shrove Tuesday.

7. The white lily is the traditional Easter flower.

True.

8. Buckingham Palace holds an Easter egg roll every year.

False. This happens at the White House.

9. The ancient Egyptians gave decorated eggs as gifts.

True.

10. It is a tradition to eat hot cross buns on Easter Sunday.

False. This occurs on Good Friday.

